APPLE ROCK RECOGNIZED AMONG TOP INDUSTRY LEADERS WITH DUAL HONORS

Greensboro, NC – Apple Rock Displays, a premier provider of event marketing solutions, is proud to announce its inclusion in two prestigious industry lists for 2023: the Triad Business Journal's Fast 50 and Event Marketer's FAB 50. These accolades underscore Apple Rock's sustained growth and excellence in event and exhibit fabrication.

Triad Business Journal's Fast 50

The Triad Business Journal annually honors the 50 fastest-growing privately held companies in the Triad region. Apple Rock's consistent revenue growth and significant contributions to the local economy have earned it a place on this esteemed list for the eighth time. This recognition reflects the company's dedication to innovation and client satisfaction.

Event Marketer's FAB 50

Event Marketer magazine's FAB 50 is the industry's only editorial roster of the top exhibit and event fabricators in the United States. Apple Rock's inclusion highlights its commitment to quality craftsmanship and cutting-edge design in the event and exhibit industry.

A Commitment to Excellence

"Being recognized by both the Triad Business Journal and Event Marketer is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our entire team," said Eric Burg, President and CEO of Apple Rock Displays. "These honors reflect our unwavering commitment to delivering exceptional solutions and services to our clients."
